Many informative and helpful comments were received, to questions 4 and 10 as well as this question. They'll be collated and considered. Some themes:

- 30 comments praised the (relatively) high standard of play
- 14 comments disliked the unfriendly or over-aggressive approach of some players, but 8 praised the friendly atmosphere
- 7 comments complained of slow play (and resulting late finishes)
- 3 comments (and 2 more on the next question) requested that more of the able-bodied players should help with setting up before play and/or clearing up after play.
